2. GENERAL CONDITIONS OF USE OF THE JOBISJOB WEBSITE AND USER INFORMATION

2.1. Introduction

JobisJob is part of Adevinta Spain, S.L.U. (hereinafter, JobisJob). Access and use of the JobisJob website are completely voluntary and confer the status of the user to those who carry out this action. The Use of the website signifies full acceptance of the legal conditions, the "Data protection policy" and the "Additional legal conditions" published when the user accesses the site. JobisJob also informs users that these legal conditions may be modified without prior notice. Therefore users should carefully read the conditions every time they enter the website, as the conditions may have changed.

The user may access, print, download and save the General Conditions of Use at any time. These Conditions shall be permanently available on the Website via the LEGAL CONDITIONS link.

JobisJob reserves the right without prior notice to modify the content of the legal text and the Data protection policy and therefore recommends the user to read the legal text and the Data protection policy each time he accesses and uses the JobisJob website.

JobisJob reserves the right to modify - without prior notice - the design, layout and/or configuration of the Website, and any or all of the services offered and reserves the right to add new services.

JobisJob reserves the right at any time and without prior notice to deny access to users who fail to comply with any of the general or specific conditions that apply.

2.2. Object

The present legal text regulates the access and usage of the JobisJob website.

The purpose of this portal is to give users direct access to job offers published on other websites.

In this sense, JobisJob makes the services of this website available for internet users. Users who register by filling out the website application form shall be offered the following services:

- A search engine and directory of job offers by category and location.
- A directory of the job offers that are most popular with users.
- The creation of a personal account where recently searched and read jobs can be saved, and where jobs can be blocked permanently.
- A permanent list of the latest searches carried out by the user that can be accessed from any computer.
- Subscription to and distribution of alerts containing recently published job offers.
- Publication of job offers and direct contact with the persons interested in these job offers.

JobisJob will only share data and/or information provided by users with other users if the data and/or information are not in breach of the law or the General Conditions of Use described herein.

JobisJob may eliminate content from the site without prior notice.

The user accepts that it is not technically possible for the JobisJob website to be available 100 % of the time. Nonetheless, JobisJob shall endeavour to maintain constant availability. The Website's services may be subject to brief anomalies or temporary suspension, especially due to maintenance, security and capacity issues, as well as for motives beyond JobisJob's control (for example public communication network anomalies, power cuts, etc.)

2.3. User obligations as regards the Site

The user agrees to use the site and its functions diligently, in complete compliance with the Law on good practice and the General and Specific Conditions of Use, as the case may be. The user also agrees to respect other users.

Users are expressly prohibited from using the website for any purpose other than that for which it was created.

The user agrees to comply with the applicable laws and third party rights as regards use of the Website content and services. Users may not copy, distribute, transmit, adapt or modify the content of the Website (text, designs, graphics, information, databases, sound and/or image files, logos, etc.) or any other element of the Website, in any way, without prior authorisation from the legitimate owner, or unless permitted by law.

The user is specifically prohibited from using abusive or defamatory content, regardless of whether it affects other users, individuals or companies, using pornographic content or content that violates child protection laws, or advertising, offering or distributing pornographic products or products that breach child protection laws, disturb other users (especially via spam), use legally protected content (e.g. by legislation governing intellectual property, trademarks, patents, utility models or aesthetic designs) without rights to the aforementioned, advertising, offering and distributing legally protected goods and services, and carrying out or promoting activities that infringe free competition, including those designed to progressively secure customers (chain, snowball and pyramid systems).

Users are prohibited from carrying out the following actions:

- Using Website mechanisms, software and script
- Blocking, overwriting, modifying, or copying, unless essential to the website's operations. For example the act of copying via "Robot/Crawler" search-engine technology is not necessary for the correct use of the Website and is expressly prohibited.
- Distribute and publicly reproduce content from the JobisJob website or from other users, without prior authorisation.
- Any action likely to damage the JobisJob infrastructure, especially overloading.
- Using any material or information from the Website, for illegal purposes, expressly prohibited in the General Conditions of Use or in the specific conditions, as the case may be. Using any material or information that damages the rights and interests of JobisJob, its members and/or third parties. Users shall be liable for any breach or contravention of these obligations (including introducing or distributing computer viruses) and/or damaging, rendering useless, overloading, harming or impeding the normal use of the material and information on the Website, in the information systems and documents, files and content stored in JobisJob's IT systems (hacking), or those of its members or other users.

Certain functions do not require users to subscribe or register in advance. Nonetheless, JobisJob shall make the use of certain services conditional upon the prior completion of a relevant user form, and shall select the identifier and password, which the user will agree to protect and use with due diligence.

The use of the password is personal and non-transferable. It may not be transmitted - even temporarily - to third parties. The user must adopt adequate measures to protect his or her password, to prevent it from being used by third parties. The user is responsible for the use of his or her password, with complete indemnity on the part of JobisJob. If the user knows or suspects third parties are using his or her password, the user must inform JobisJob immediately.

Users must register by means of specific forms for specific services.

All information the user provides must be true. The user guarantees the authenticity of the data entered in the forms, governing the use of the Website's functions.

Likewise, the user is responsible for updating all information provided to JobisJob reflecting the user's real status. The user is responsible for false or inaccurate declarations, as well as damages caused to JobisJob and third parties deriving from said information.

In conformance with JobisJob's anti-spamming policy, the user is obliged to refrain from using and capturing data from other users that he or she accesses via information and services contained on the Website, for promotional or advertising purposes, and refrain from sending commercial correspondence of any kind, via any medium, which is unsolicited, and without prior consent from JobisJob and/or those affected.

The user is aware of and voluntarily accepts full and exclusive responsibility for all use of the Website's services.

The user shall accept responsibility for damages of any kind caused to JobisJob as a consequence of non-compliance with any of the obligations to which he or she is subject by virtue of these "General Conditions of Use" or by virtue of the law governing the use of the Service.

2.4. Content provided by JobisJob Users

Every user that provides the content to the JobisJob website states he or she is the legitimate owner of the intellectual property rights to the content, which govern reproduction, distribution and public communication by any electronic medium, mainly Internet and email, in the whole world, without time restraints.

JobisJob does not permit content that damages the quality of the service.

The following content is prohibited:

- That which is allegedly illegal based on national, community and international directives, or which performs allegedly illegal activities or is in breach of the principles of good faith.
- That may damage the good name and reputation of JobisJob.
- That which does not satisfy the quality parameters established by JobisJob.
- Content that is deceptive, of doubtful efficacy, or with the potential to damage individuals.
- That which supports or justifies racism, violence and hate.
- That which opposes basic human rights aims at users' weaknesses, lacks online courtesy, upsets, or generates negative opinions among users and third parties. Including but not limited to: the legal rights of third parties; content that supports or promotes the creation, maintenance or development of pornography-related business, obscene material or erotic listings; content related to clairvoyance, tarot, occultism and any other related content; and in general any content that JobisJob considers inappropriate for users and especially, for minors.
- And in general, that is in breach of the principles of legality, honour, responsibility, protection of human dignity, protection of minors, protection of public order, protection of private life, protection of the consumer, and protection of intellectual property rights.

JobisJob will determine whether certain content falls into the afore mentioned categories on the basis of good faith and/or requests by third parties and/or institutions. Non-compliance with these norms could lead to the immediate cancellation of the user's account and the destruction of all user-related content, without the option to recover said content. Nonetheless, JobisJob cannot control each and every piece of content published and therefore cannot assume responsibility for all content.

However, JobisJob shall carry out regular checks on inserted and published content to ensure compliance with JobisJob's principles of quality, as well as the norms described herein.

Moreover, JobisJob reserves the right to withdraw all content from JobisJob that it deems inappropriate and that does not comply with the characteristics and aims of the website.

If you notice any inappropriate content on the website please contact our customer service department at info\(at\)jobisjob\(dot\)comjobisjob(dot)com) and/or telephone +34 935 76 55 00

Users are responsible for obtaining all types of authorisations, permits and licences required to use or publish content.

Any user that adds content that is in breach of the legislation then in force shall assume full responsibility for the damages and consequences of their actions, relieving JobisJob of all responsibility.

2.5. Publication of job offers by Advertisers

1. Advertisers of job offers are considered users of the Website. Therefore, user obligations also apply to them. Likewise, the relationship between JobisJob and advertisers shall be governed also by the provisions of this section.
2. Each new or re-edited submitted advert will normally be displayed on the Website within a few hours of posting. Adverts are subject to JobisJob quality processes at any time and could be rejected if they do not meet JobisJob quality requirements. Adverts remain valid for 30 days after having been posted.
3. Live adverts may be edited by advertisers or deleted at any time but they will be automatically deleted at the end of the 1 month period. Note: if adverts are changed or re-edited after the submission they could be reviewed again and rejected by us at any time. The editing of the advert does not modify the expiration date.
4. Every effort is made to ensure adverts are displayed correctly, however, JobisJob does not accept responsibility for any errors, omissions or any direct or consequential losses that may occur.
5. All vacancy adverts must be freely available to JobisJob and must be for genuine job vacancies. JobisJob does not accept party-plan, pyramid schemes or positions that require a monetary investment by the job seeker, some work from home jobs, barter or volunteer positions etc.
6. If the job offers advertisers publish have expired but advertisers have not deleted them, JobisJob will redirect the traffic coming from search engines to the results page that displays the most similar job offers available at that point in time.
7. Advertisers who wish to terminate their relationship with JobisJob may do so at any time. To that effect, advertisers have to delete the job offers and their employer account or send JobisJob an e-mail to info\(at\)jobisjob\(dot\)comjobisjob(dot)com)
8. The responsibility for the content of job adverts is exclusively attributable to Advertisers (irrespective of the quality exam process performed by Jobisjob). Likewise, if personal data is made public on such job adverts, Advertisers guarantee that they have the authorisations to publish such data on the Website and to make it functional according to the purposes of the Website.
9. JobisJob reserves the right to terminate its relationship with a particular advertiser at any time with or without notice or reason.

2.6. Posting Service Conditions

Jobisjob offers its users registered as employers/employers the possibility of posting their job offers.

To that end, according to what is set forth in the regulations in force that are applicable, Jobisjob informs its users about the following issues:

- Payment method: PayPal (most common credit cards are allowed in PayPal)
- The pack will remain in force for 6 months after the purchase.
- Each job offer will be online for 30 days.
- The prices include all the applicable taxes.

2.7. No licence

JobisJob authorises the use of intellectual property rights over the software that facilitates the Website's services and functions, in accordance with the Conditions herein.

JobisJob does not grant any other licence or authorisation to intellectual property rights or any other property or right related to the Website's functions.

Users can send in suggestions and proposals to improve the information, activities and/or functions provided by and/or available on the Website, by contacting the JobisJob Customer Service.

2.8. Exclusion of guarantees and liability

Not including the specific situations described in the Website's Legal Conditions and legal framework, JobisJob shall not be liable for damage of any kind caused by inaccurate or non-specific information or by information that is not up to date; nor shall it be responsible for damage caused by errors or omissions of the information and services contained in the Website, or other content accessed via the site; nor shall it be liable for verification or supervision of content and information.

Moreover, JobisJob does not guarantee ongoing availability and operability of the Website, nor infallibility, and therefore excludes insofar as permitted by law, any liability for damages caused by a lack of availability or continuity in the site's operations and services, or errors accessing other websites or websites that provide said services.

JobisJob excludes any liability for damages resulting from services provided by third parties via the Website and media employed to manage service requests, including but not limited to: acts of unfair competition and illegal advertising via the provision of services via the Website; information that is false, inaccurate, non-specific, imperfect, defective, irrelevant and/or out of date; and content transmitted, distributed, stored, received, obtained, made available or accessible via the services provided by third parties via this Website.

JobisJob guarantees the user the right to de-register from the website, in a simple and effective manner, and to stop receiving messages from the website. JobisJob cannot guarantee that users who gain access to the user's email via the contact details in his or her site will not contact said user again.

2.9. Personal data

JobisJob states that it will handle all personal data provided by users in accordance with the terms of the Protection of Personal Data Policy of the JobisJob website, which can be found in the legal conditions of this website.

The user accepts that the content he or she enters will be available and accessible via Internet search engines.

Users guarantee that the Personal Data provided is true, exact, up to date, and authentic, and they agree to maintain the aforementioned information up to date at all times.

2.10. Security measures

Given that Internet security measures are not impregnable when it comes to privacy and security, JobisJob does not guarantee that authorised and unauthorised third parties are not aware of the conditions, characteristics and circumstances of the Website's operations and that they cannot access, intercept, delete, alter, modify or manipulate messages, communications and content of any kind, which users distribute or communicate to third parties via the website.

2.11. Links to third party pages

JobisJob's content includes links to sites belonging to and/or managed by third parties, in order to facilitate access to information available via Internet.

JobisJob does not accept liability for links between the content of the website and content external to the website, or any other mention of content external to the website. Thus, links and mentions exist for informational purposes only, and in no way signify support, approval, sale or any relation between JobisJob and the individuals or entities who have created and/or manage said content or own the websites on which they are found.

2.12. Applicable Law and Jurisdiction

These Legal Conditions and the rest of the website's conditions are governed by Spanish law.

As regards issues that arise in relation to the provision of services and content on JobisJob, and the interpretation, application, compliance and non-compliance with the information contained herein, JobisJob and the user, expressly renounce any right to submit to jurisdictions other than the Courts of Barcelona.

3. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

© Adevinta Spain S.L.U.- All rights

All operating rights are reserved.

This Website is governed by Spanish law and is protected by national and international legislation on intellectual property.

The texts, designs, images, databases, logos, layout, trademarks and other elements of the website belong to JobisJob or third parties who have given JobisJob the operating rights over the intellectual property rights in the context of the services provided via this website. These rights are protected by the laws and international treaties on intellectual property. Any reproduction, transmission, adaptation, translation, modification, communication or use of all or some of the Website content, in any way or form, electronic, mechanical, or otherwise, is strictly prohibited unless it is subject to prior written authorisation from JobisJob or the third party owner of the rights. Any infraction of these rights could lead to extrajudicial or civil or criminal legal proceedings.

Any text, design, image, database, logo, layout, trademark or other third parties industrial property right included in the Website does not imply transfer of ownership of rights to JobisJob. The user is responsible for the legitimacy of the intellectual property rights to the content he or she uses.

To protect intellectual property rights, any user or third party who considers that his or her legitimate rights have been breached by specific content on the website should inform JobisJob, in writing to Adevinta Spain, Calle Hernani nº 59, 1ª, 28020 Madrid.

- The details identifying the owner of the rights that have been breached and, in the event of the interested party being represented by a third party, the details of the representative.
- Indicate the content protected by the specific intellectual property right and the location of the content on the website.
- Proof of the existence, ownership and validity of the intellectual property right.
- Statement in which the interested party accepts liability for the truth of the details and information provided in the notification described herein.

4. DATA PROTECTION POLICY

4.1. Information rights

The data protection policy governs the access and use of the website services, which JobisJob (which contact details are set forth on top of this Legal conditions) - makes available to Internet users interested in the site's services and content (hereafter "users").

In accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), Adevinta Spain, S.L.U. as the owner of the Website (hereinafter, JobisJob), informs the user that JobisJob obtains, uses, stores and processes personal data relating to users for the purposes of rendering the services set forth in section 2.2 above.

Such data refers to name, surname and email address, as well as contact details contained in job offers posted by advertisers.

JobisJob fully complies with the legislation in force as regards personal data protection and with the confidentiality agreements concerning its activity.

If the user decides to register with JobisJob he or she shall be asked to provide data that is strictly necessary for the website to function according to its purpose, which is to facilitate communication between job advertisers and job seekers and to inform users of job advertisers' characteristics and reputation among other users.

For this reason, users are required to fill out a form that includes their personal details. This data shall be used strictly for Website functions, within the established regulatory framework.

The legitimacy for such data processes is the user consent, which shall be withheld at any time as stated below.

JobisJob shall keep the personal data provided by users while the user is interested in Jobisjob services.

4.2. Purpose

JobisJob collects information concerning users who register via the web form available on the JobisJob website for the following reasons:

- Creation of a personal account where recently searched and read jobs can be saved, and jobs can be blocked permanently.
- A permanent list of the latest searches carried out by the user that can be accessed from any computer.
- Subscription and distribution of alerts containing recently published job offers.
- Publication of job offers and direct contact with the persons interested in these job offers.
- Offering training related to the job searches the user has carried out.

4.3. Compulsory or optional nature of the information provided by the User and reliability of the information

The user must complete the fields marked with (*) in the registration form so that JobisJob can process the form. All other fields are voluntary.

The user guarantees that the personal information provided is true and agrees to inform JobisJob of any changes to the same.

The user guarantees that the personal information provided is exact and up to date and reflects the user's current status. The user is responsible for keeping his or her information up to date at all times. The user is responsible for any mistake or error in the data provided and shall be liable for any damage deriving from said errors, as regards JobisJob or third parties, by virtue of using JobisJob's services.

4.4. User Consent

The transfer of personal data via JobisJob's electronic form or via email, signifies the sender's consent to the processing of his or her details by means of the JobisJob website medium, functions and products, as well as receiving electronic correspondence containing information relating to JobisJob and its initiatives.

All users accept that personal data may be transferred to third parties as a consequence of the site's operations. For these purposes, references to third parties mean "users or entities that wish to contact the user".

Third parties may be located abroad in third countries. Therefore, users expressly accept and authorise the transfer of their data to third countries where other users may be located.

All users who register (both job advertisers and job seekers) are aware and therefore expressly accept that data concerning them will be published and visible on the JobisJob Website and Internet search engines.

4.5. Information provided by minors

Persons of age over fourteen may register at JobisJob.com as users without prior consent from their parents or guardians.

Minors under 14 cannot register to use JobisJob without prior consent from their parents or guardians.

Under no circumstances will JobisJob collect data on the professional, economic or private situation of a minor or any of his family members without prior consent.

If you are under 14 and have entered the site without notifying your parents you cannot register as a user.

4.6. Electronic communication

JobisJob offers the user the free of charge service of job alerts that JobisJob sends to the electronic address of the user who subscribes to the service making use of the email alert subscription form.

JobisJob has established two mechanisms by which users can reject said services, simply and at zero cost.

To do so the user must enter the Configuration menu, select Notifications and de-activate the relevant sending options in the Email section. Users can also de-activate this service by following the instructions at the bottom of the email.

4.7. Security

JobisJob informs users that it has adopted the technical and organisational measures laid down by law, to protect their personal data and to prevent it from being altered, lost, handled or accessed without authorisation, bearing in mind the status of the technology, nature of the data saved and the risks to which it is exposed, in accordance with REGULATION (EU) 2016/679 OF THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND OF THE COUNCIL of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation).

4.8. Cookies settings

JobisJob sets its cookies to make the user's navigation experience as pleasant as possible. By using cookies JobisJob can be sure to be offering users the content that most interests them.

What are cookies?

A cookie is a small file downloaded onto the computer, Smartphone or tablet of the user. This file is used to gather information about the user's navigation or the user's computer. Cookies keep track of the user's session, improve the loading time of the website and avoid showing information the user already knows, etc.

JobisJob cookies

The cookies used in JobisJob to offer users the best possible service are:

- Strictly necessary cookies: these cookies are essential for the running of the services users expect to get and to avoid showing certain informational layers that users have chosen to hide. Without these cookies, both the contents and services offered in JobisJob would not function properly and the user experience would suffer from it. Analytical cookies: these cookies are used by us or by third parties to monitor the performance of the user and to analyse user behaviour patterns, the number of visitors, visited pages or sections, navigation time, data of used browsers, visited website and information related to the navigation itself.
- The aim behind using these cookies is to improve user experience on the web in terms of the source through which they access the portal and to create statistical reports on website traffic, total audience and audience in a particular advertising campaign. To create reports based on general patterns of the website visitors. We inform you that the third parties that could have access to this information are Google Analytics (<http://www.google.com/intl/en/policies/technologies/cookies>) and Score Card Research (Full Circle studies, Inc) (<http://www.scorecardresearch.com/privacy.aspx>), without detriment to other companies. You can consult the privacy policy on the cookies of these companies by clicking on the above links. We obtain third party audience aggregated data (such as age, gender, and interests) through Google Analytics.
- Advertising cookies: these cookies are treated by us or by third parties in accordance with the law. They allow us to manage, in the most effective way possible, the advertising spaces offered on the web, the tailoring of the content of the requested service or the use that is made of our website. As a result, we can analyse the user's browsing habits on the Internet and we can show them the advertisements that best fit their interests. Besides, they are needed to manage advertising campaigns by following different patterns such as the number of times an advertisement is seen, or to improve and manage the exposure to advertisements by avoiding those the user has already seen.
- We use Remarketing technology with Google Analytics to advertise online.
- Third-party vendors, including Google, may show our ads on sites across the Internet. Us and third-party vendors, including Google, use first-party cookies (such as the Google Analytics cookies) and third-party cookies (such as the DoubleClick cookie) together to inform, to optimize, to report how our ad impressions, other uses of ad services, interactions with these ad impressions and ad services are related to visits to our site and serve ads based on someone's past visits to our website.
- We inform you that the third party that could access this information is DoubleClick.net (<http://www.google.com/doubleclick>) without detriment to other companies. If you would like to consult this company's privacy and cookie policy you can access their conditions through the above link.
- Behavioural cookies: these cookies manage advertising campaigns following the specific user's profile.

If strictly analytical cookies, advertising cookies and behavioural cookies are not enabled, your user experience will not be affected. However, successful advertisements that help JobisJob bring in income will be, as well as our capability to offer free services and contents.

4.9. User Right

Users have rights in relation to the way we (JobisJob) handle their personal data. These include the following rights:

- where the legal basis of our processing is consent, to withdraw that consent at any time;
- to ask for access to the personal data that we hold;
- to ask us to erase personal data (when we do not have a legal basis to keep such personal data)
- to ask us to rectify inaccurate data or to complete incomplete data;
- to restrict processing in specific circumstances;
- to make a complaint to the Data Protection authorities; and
- to ask for the portability of their personal data, and therefore to have such personal data in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format.

Users can exercise these rights via the website's configuration menu. If users experience problems exercising their online rights or if they have doubts or questions as to our policy of data protection, they can contact us directly at:

Adevinta Spain, S.L.U.

5. DIGITAL SERVICES (DSA) REGULATION

Digital Services Act (DSA) Regulation (EU) 2022/2065

JobisJob is required, under Article 24 of Regulation (EU) 2022/2065 (Digital Services Act), to publish information on its average monthly users.

Between 1 July 2022 and 31 December 2022, the average number of monthly users of the JobisJob service was 114K (on EU country websites). Source: Similarweb (web data)

Please note that monthly user data are generated using external vendor tracking tools. We can't rule out the possibility that the methodology used might count users twice, and therefore, that said methodology be changed in the future.

Definition:

A user coming to the website, either once or several times, is considered a unique visitor to this domain. Unique visits is the primary metric used to assess the actual reach of a website. These metrics are estimated in terms of both daily and monthly granularity.

Calculation:

Using a unique ID per device through the Similarweb network of contributors. Unlike other traffic analysis tools, Similarweb does not rely on cookies, which are considered unreliable as they can be manually or automatically deleted.

Deduplicated audience:

To estimate the size of deduplicated audiences, Similarweb uses learning and linear regression models to build an algorithm used to estimate the reach of a website's deduplicated monthly visits.
